The legal consequences / sanctions are the following: Against a physical person, a fine and / or unlimited incarceration can be caused up to 10 years. "A unlimited fiscal penalty can be promoted against a legal person and / or exclusion of adjudication of public essays. In 1998, FCPA was expanded to increase foreign companies and people under the FCPA. The British anti-corruption network should be seen in relation to the US Renational Corpoil Law. UU (FCPA), especially because the term "has developed" has been developed in the US. UU and compliance, has been planned as an expansion of the expansion in the FCPA since 1991. "Helps to understand the general development of International anti-corruption laws, including UN anti-corruption conventions and OECD. 3. The attention of the diligence when dealing with third parties are required (commercial partners, consultants, intermediaries, subcontractors and joint ventures). "The interviews help with the conclusion of supplies and expectations. Taking into account the cultural and legal aspects in the Alien is important". If corruption has already been done in the past, it should be done with special care. In the end, BonitArt will be decisive. A company is also responsible, even if there was no knowledge of an employee's corrupt behavior. Exculpation: Whenever a company can prove that it has taken appropriate precautions on the prevention of corruption and there is a compliance program, the company has better opportunities, is not responsible". This corresponds to the regulations of the FCPA. Business leader, primary, etc. Compliance with compliance thoroughness becomes German as a regular compliance with the rules or interview. The Harvard business manager specifies as a definition: "The commitment to cling to certain rules". It complies with the core of the cause ". Compliance" has been developed in the Angelic Business Law, parallel to several corruption scaves in the United States (ENRON, TYCO, WorldCom, HealthSouth). He went through the white-collar crime: in order of money, fraud, corruption (shadiero and accessible position), shell companies / straw companies, outside the book funds Slush Funds / Insider Lubricity and Trade Funds. "The US law against corruption punishes the corruption of the intervals, provided that the corruption action has a subscription from the United States. High costs of a preliminary investigation of FCPA a good example for the impact and costs of a procedure of FCPA is the case of Siemens. German companies' Köa is reconciled by corrupt behavior around the world, even if the corruption action is not related to an activity in the United Kingdom. It is enough that "the company in question also becomes economically active in the United Kingdom. The shares of the company are traded in the London Stock Exchange or a subsidiary is reported in the United Kingdom, but it is not enough only. "As in Lord Chancellor's Prologue) companies are not only responsible for corrupt actions in their company, but also for the corrupt actions of their business partners. So German companies have to think about the selection of consultants and runners. Possible application of the application. law. All documents must be translated into English. "In a judicial procedure, it can go to thousands or millions of pages. The common laws are tedious and expensive. July 2011 has entered into force, is considered the Old anti-corruption law. It's like the American Since the bribe of a mandate is necessary. It is enough that corruption takes place in a private sector. The law applies to people and natural and legal associations. I. "US Document Administration UU and the United Kingdom Complete jurisdiction makes it clear that companies are expected to be guaranteed to ensure the availability of electronic documents in an orderly or disadvantaged manner, to legal sanctions" to wait. The first major law of corrupt corruption with the international application is the Law of Corrupt Practices of Foreign Corrupts of the USA UU (FCPA) of 1977, which became more compensated by the inclusion of the Guidelines of the Federal Judgment (Federal rules for sanction in crime). In 1991. Recent years if the FCPA procedures have led to the condemnation of international corruption companies. In 1997, the OECD was adopted the Convention to combat the bribe of intervals in international transactions. Risk assessment 4. Done due diligence 5. Communication (including training) 6. Monitoring and review III. The existence of a competitive situation is not required, as in German law. In 2003, the United Nations approved the conviction against corruption. In the preamble, he says: "Corruption is no longer a local matter but a transnational phenomenon that affects all societies and economies." Corruption is no longer just a majority issue, but a transnational phenomenon that all societies and management refer. "In Germany, now it is assumed that the German law against corruption will continue soon. In (e) Management Politics of documents / system and a compliance program must at least Consider considerate. Individual characteristics of the facts: the characteristic of "financial benefit or other" appears in many categories. It encloses all the material and intangible advantages. In some sectors (in particular, raw materials and infrastructure), the risk of corruption is traditionally highly inscribed highly highly registered. Projects and costly projects with many partners are also considered risky. It is considered that some countries do not have an anti-corruption legislation, and the government, the media and citizens do not require transparency in the task. Superior level commitment in the prevention of bribery 3. The law applies to all companies that are lasting in Great Britain and Northern Ireland. Each business with foreign reports to the United Kingdom may fall under the law. "The action of corruption does not have to take place in the United Kingdom. In addition, the action wanted by bribery should not be done in the United Kingdom. The bribery (corresponds to § 334 STGB) and a tightest option (corresponds to § 332 STGB) and equivalent to § 299 STGB, bribes and corruption in business traffic. Compliance programs and Compliance are the result of the business autoprotection. Other corporate risks result from the lack of clear specifications and the lack of financial control. However, the most common risk factor is an administration council that does not conceive and intervene clear instructions against corruption. In 2008, Siemens said it was pleaded guilty of having paid $ 1.3 billion in bribes in Argentina, Bangladesh, France, Iraq, Turkey and Venezuela, and we had a total of $ 1.7 billion criminals, in DOJ, SEC, and German Beha Obven ". The cost of the procedure for Siemens will be estimated at $ 1 billion. Companies of relationships that are The diligent UK. diligent. Precautions to prevent violation against British law against corruption. Especially with small and medium-sized, traditional, usual or self-commendable purchases, thinking and action can prevent possible hazards. The fear of the costs of the implementation of the compartment should not prevent companies from seeking. The limitation of the risk of responsibility. A good code includes qualified managers and compliance commissioners, a clear and comprehensible program, training and regular councils, and regular surveillance / controls. "A company that does not have a compliance program, divest internal controls and no urgency when it is its fulfillment may be compliance. Punished according to the FCPA and the Bribery Act of the United Kingdom. 2. "Code of Conduct and Clear Installation Instructions The company must develop a corporate conduct code that clearly rejects Corruption. The code of conduct should include all important partners of the company and should be an indispensable part of corporate culture. Clear instructions should be given for the notification of damaged ranges by corruption. "The code of conduct must be available to all employees. All employees should read the code, sign and confirm that he / she is not Against the code has erased. Due to the high cost of a process of corruption, the loss of reputation and the delayed competitive competence, some large United States companies in the 1990 DA © to regulate themselves. It was obvious that it was obvious that it was advantageous to commit to comply with the standards and to force all employees, as well as the risk of costly criminal or civil activity avoids, as the government then in 1991, the FCPA also changed that proof of an effective internal compliance system could lead to a punitive expansion or reducer reducing system, more and more than large companies complied with compliance programs. General Criteria for Compliance Programs (United Kingdom and FCPA Bribes Law) 1. "Risk assessment) should be clarified if and in which one's company is a risk of violation under the Law of Bribery of the United Kingdom." This evaluation must be regularly to look at the situation with new customers and business partners. The structure of the law consists of three parts: 1. Bribery of foreign advertising and officials Comparable persons The corruption of district negotiation is not punishable. "Only offering, promising, it is a punishable benefit. These regulations comply with the OECD Anti-SBObmire FCPA, business with business activity in GB and USA UU should show a Tolling-proof documents management and dike proof. It can be processed if corruption took place with your knowledge or interest. The risks of external corruption are divided into different categories. These categories refer to country itself, or a specific sector of activity, the CARA. Cter of transaction, the circumstances of the business opportunity (opportunity) or the quality of the commercial relationship (for example, association, joint venture, etc.). For the comparison: Violation against the FCPA by the physical persons They punish with a great punishment of 5 years of competition or a fine of up to $ 25,000,000. They promise a fine of up to 2 million US dollars. These guidelines consist of six (6) principles, "1." Procedures provided: The program should be appropriate for the size and type of company ". Periodic oral Informative sessions" would be the regular "oral periodic" regular meetings. The "Amsträger" ta © rhine has been very far away. As in German criminal law, officials are not only the bearers of a legislative, administrative or judicial office, but also to people who at all at a Public Tig function are. 3. criminal offenses to refrain from the prevention of bribery by employees or the company associantals with the associated persons if the company does not avoid the law of adequate precautions to prevent corruption, then the company can be Penalizable It is already sufficient that a person associated with the company ("associate person") impresses another person, private individual or official trade, in the interest of the company. Professionals, agents and commissioners can "be connected". However, this person must represent the company (to represent) and have the bribe. Another consequence of a violation against the British and American law against corruption may be the exclusion of public tenders in Germany. The German Acquisition Law has different provisions according to which a tenderer of the awarding procedure can be excluded if he has a violation against the anti-corruption law of another state. The act of bribery of the United Kingdom of the new British Bribery Law, which is found in the 1st EEVER EVIDENCE UU (Discovery) consists of an apparently endless exchange of documents. All documents must be read from the lawyers and being examined to decide what documents "protected Includes information that is excluded from the discovery. Today, all companies have to support further actions or assume the risk of finding themselves as the nearest corruption scan in the media. Ä, ä, - ä "dial: it is designed for objective criteria (what a reasonable person would expect would be related to the exercise of the function). 2. INTRODUCTION The Law of Bribery of the United Kingdom was adopted in 2010 and has been written in writing or electronically from the first of the 1st documents and includes everything that belongs to business ". Document Administration KlÄrt, QUÄ When it has been maintained and how much time has been maintained. "All employees must be familiar with the document management policy, whose sign of politics, date and return to the employer for storage in the personnel file. Maintain and the timely destruction of documents that would not be legally stored, the main functions of program II. The Compliance Guidelines of the United Kingdom, Kenneth Clarke, the Chancellor of the Lord and the Secretary of Justice, the Hat Guidelines for the companies that prevent corruption in relation to the Law of Bribery of the United Kingdom by the Compliance, want to publish. Intención is required. But: in case of corruption, an attachment for the agreed action of the level is not required. July 2011 in force. Corruption and compliance are the current issues that not only deal with large companies, but also small and medium-sized, "with globalization and increased international trade relations, the risk that German companies have become extensions Clear, for bribery or corruption, under the Law of Foreign Corrupt Practices of the United States or the Law of Bribery of the United Kingdom, which will be communicated to civil or criminal law. The regulations of the civil procedure of the Kingdom 2010 to provide regulations for electronic provision. Often, sufficient documents decide a legal dispute by substantiation a claim article or rejecting a counterpart. As internal risks, the lack of employee training is considered a general lack of preciseness and lack of specific knowledge. Companies that reward high risk with bonuses are classified as a risk.
